

Teacher notes

In my country...

Language point

Modal verbs of obligation

Aim

To practise modal verbs of obligation.
To highlight the difference between mustn't and don't have to.

Activity

Students categorize modal verbs and complete sentences about their country.

Organization

Pair work.

Preparation

Make enough copies of the worksheet for the number of students in your class.

What do I do?

- 1 Hand out the worksheet.
- 2 Students put the modal verbs in the correct column.
- 3 Students complete sentences about their country by inserting a modal verb.
- 4 Discuss the points as a class.
Do students agree or disagree with them?

MUST, MUSTN'T HAVE TO, DON'T HAVE TO

Necessary?

Not necessary?

In my country...
You		wear a seat belt in a car
Men		do military service
Children		go to school on Saturday
You		go to the doctor every year
You		pay for school books
You		vote in an election
You		pay to drive on motorways